

For Immediate Release
From the Office of Command Personnel Affairs

Ladies and gentlemen,

I am honored and humbled to stand before you today as the newly appointed Head of Personnel aboard Pehlan's Port. As many of you know, I have spent the majority of my career dedicated to the advancement of space exploration and the betterment of our team here on the station.

I believe that the success of any organization lies in the strength and commitment of its people, and I am dedicated to fostering a positive and productive work environment for all of us here at Pehlan's Port. I am excited to work with each and every one of you to achieve our common goals and push the boundaries of what is possible.

But let me be clear - my dedication to our team does not stop at the station's doors. I am committed to ensuring that every member of our crew is supported and valued, both professionally and personally. I believe that in order to truly excel, we must prioritize the well-being and happiness of our team.

However, as Head of Personnel, it is my duty to also ensure the safety and security of this station. And while I have every confidence in the capabilities and judgment of our team, I must also be vigilant in identifying any potential threats to our mission.

So let me assure you, while my primary focus will always be on the betterment of our team and the success of our mission, I will not hesitate to take decisive action to protect the integrity and safety of Pehlan's Port, it's crew, and the interest of NanoTrasen.

Thank you again for entrusting me with this important role. I am excited to work with each and every one of you to make Pehlan's Port a beacon of excellence in the vast expanse of space.

Head of Personnel Nathan
